

Belly dance Star to perform at art festival April 10, 2004!

Egyptian belly dancer and choreographer Soraya will perform a very special Arabic dance program on April 10 at 9:30PM. This special Middle Eastern dance show is the featured show of the International Cultural Arts Festival at Monmouth University, West Long Branch.

The festival will be held at the historical Woodrow Wilson Great Hall from 7 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Soraya has performed in Europe, the United States, the Orient, Middle East and the Mediterranean, and danced as an invited guest of the late King Hassan and the royal family in Morocco. She and her husband, a very prominent physician, reside in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

For more information, visit her professional cultural Websites at:
www.bellydancebysoraya.com and www.soraya.us

